This week in school

World War II

Our Otter class enjoyed a visit from one of our pupil's great grandad to talk about World War Two. The discussion and sharing of artefacts really made history come alive for the children. We are very grateful for the support we get from our parents- Thank you.

WWF Assembly

One of our brilliant Year 5 pupils planned and led an assembly this week about the charity WWF. She shared her passion for the endangered species in an engaging and creative way. Well done Anabelle! As a school we thought we might support this charity through a loose change donation next week. There will be a pot at both school entrances to collect any donations.

We will then plan to sponsor an animal, chosen by the children. WWF then send regular updates which will be shared with the school.

Science Fun

Our Dragonflies enjoyed predicting and testing which materials are soluble and insoluble in Science this week. The children really enjoyed this practical and purposeful learning.

SAFEGUARDING

At Broad Chalke, keeping children safe is always a priority and our safeguarding duty. The purpose of these weekly updates is to raise awareness and support you as parents.

Online-safety is a subject we regularly talk about in school. I would encourage parents to continue discussions at home, regardless of how old your child is.

"Regular conversations with your child about the online world is important and has a greater impact when it starts at a young age – make this topic as ordinary as chatting about something you've watched on TV. Think about how you might talk about the risks and facts around alcohol or getting home at night. Apply the same approach to online safety. It doesn't have to be 'the big talk' - checking in for even a minute or two can make a big difference" Young Minds Attached to this week's newsletter is advice and information for parents, written by Young Minds, to support your discussions at home.

FOBS

A huge thank you to FOBS and staff for helping to organise the quiz on Friday night- it was a great evening of fun, food and facts!! Also thank you to everyone who donated and bid on the silent auction. We are delighted to announce the total funds raised was £1600. 😊 😊 😊

Second hand uniform- will be available during the stay and read event on World Book Day (7th March). Please enter the school through your child's classroom door. If you have more than one child please feel free to move between classes or gather your children in the central space to share a book together.
