SCHOOL UNIFORM POLICY

Policy Date: September 2026

Review Date: September 2027

1. Introduction

At Broad Chalke, we believe that a school uniform helps to create a strong sense of belonging, pride and identity. Our uniform reflects the values of our school community and supports pupils in being ready to learn, participate and flourish.

We are committed to creating an environment where every child is known, valued and encouraged to achieve their full potential. Our uniform policy reflects the trust's commitment to inclusion, dignity, respect and equality, ensuring that all pupils can participate fully in school life regardless of their background, faith, culture, disability, gender or family circumstances.

This policy has been developed with due regard to the Department for Education's statutory guidance Cost of School Uniforms and the non-statutory guidance School Uniforms: Guidance for Schools. The school is committed to ensuring that uniform requirements are practical, inclusive, affordable and represent best value for families

Appearance and Safety

- ➔ Long hair must be tied back. Hair may be worn in any natural or protective style that is safe for school activities.
- ➔ Discreet, plain school colour hair ties or bands are requested.
- ➔ Small stud earrings may be worn. Other jewellery is not permitted, except a simple religious necklace or article agreed with the school. Jewellery may need to be removed or secured for PE and practical activities.
- ➔ Nail varnish, make-up and dyed hair are not part of school uniform.
- ➔ Clothing, bags and accessories should not display offensive, discriminatory or party-political wording or imagery.
- ➔ All clothing and footwear should be safe, practical and clearly named.
- ➔ In line with our Phone Policy, smart devices such as watches, glasses or other items may not be worn.

Affordability and branded items

To keep uniform affordable, the school will:

- ➔ Keep the number and cost of compulsory items to a minimum and consider the total cost to families when this policy is reviewed;
- ➔ Avoid requiring additional uniform for clubs, trips, performances or competitions;
- ➔ Allow enough notice and a reasonable transition period if requirements change;
- ➔ Review any uniform-supply arrangements for cost, quality, durability and value for money; and
- ➔ Publish clear uniform and second-hand arrangements on the school website for current and prospective families.

Second-hand uniform and support

All families can get good-quality second-hand uniform. The school website will explain where to find it and how to request it, including for families whose children have not yet joined the school. Families can also contact the school office privately for help.

If paying for uniform is difficult, please speak privately to the school office. The school may be able to provide or lend items, help you find second-hand uniform, or agree that your child can wear something different for a short time. We will offer help privately and respectfully.

Equality, religion and individual needs

All children may choose from the uniform options. We will consider changes where a child needs them. This includes reasonable adjustments for disabled children and children with special educational needs, sensory needs or medical conditions. Children may wear adaptive uniform.

We will do our best to meet a child's religious or cultural needs, including dress, hairstyles, head coverings and articles of faith. We will only limit these where there is a genuine health, safety or safeguarding reason, and any limit will go no further than necessary. Families should speak with the Headteacher so that we can agree a suitable arrangement together.

Weather and exceptional circumstances

The Headteacher may temporarily adapt uniform expectations during extreme or adverse weather or where this supports a child's attendance, health or wellbeing. Children may wear practical outerwear needed to travel safely to and from school, including visible or reflective clothing in poor light.

When uniform expectations are not met

Staff will deal with uniform concerns calmly, privately and fairly. Before taking any further action, they will check whether there is a reason outside the child's control. This could include cost, a medical or sensory need, religion or culture, or a safeguarding concern. Where helpful, the school will contact parents and find a practical solution, such as lending an item or agreeing a temporary change.

We will deal with uniform concerns fairly and in line with the school's behaviour policy. A child will not miss lessons, breaktime, PE, a club or any other part of school life because their family cannot afford the correct uniform. If the school considers a formal consequence, it must follow the behaviour policy and relevant legal guidance.

Roles and responsibilities

Academy Standards and Ethos Committee (ASEC – local governors)

The ASEC checks that this policy follows government guidance and the law. It also checks that the uniform is affordable and considers how the policy affects different groups of children.

The Headteacher and school staff

The Headteacher implements the policy fairly, ensures reasonable adjustments and support are considered, and keeps uniform information current and accessible. Staff model and reinforce expectations consistently, avoid public correction or shaming, and raise any concern about hardship, discrimination or wellbeing with the appropriate leader.

Parents and carers

Parents and carers are asked to provide the required uniform, label items, contact the school early if support or an adjustment is needed, and work with the school to resolve concerns.

Children

Children are expected to wear the agreed uniform, look after their belongings and speak to a trusted adult if they need help or feel uncomfortable or unfairly treated.

Consultation, publication and review

We will ask parents and children for their views when we plan a major change. We will pay particular attention to cost and to whether a change could affect some groups of children differently. The final policy will be easy to find on the school website and will be available to families whose children have not yet joined the school. We will review it at least once a year, and sooner if the law, government guidance or local circumstances change.

Complaints

If you have a question or concern, please speak to the Headteacher first so that the school and your family can try to agree a solution. If the issue is not resolved, you can make a formal complaint using the school's published complaints procedure. If your concern is about the supplier's service or the quality of an item, you can also use the supplier's complaints process.
